5) There are no rules in the M.S.R. explaining the circs under which exemption from payment of contribution may be ordered. In the present case the I.G. reports that the Samaja has been doing good and useful educational work. It is a matter for consideration whether on the ground that the Samaja thus promotes the State interests, it may not be exempted ~~in a manner from contribution~~. The amount of the contribution payable is Rs 3 p.m. The lending of the services of the Miss Arunachalam on foreign service Rules was itself a Concession and it would appear to be financially unacceptable to forego the small amount of Contribution which the Samaj originally agreed to pay. Foregoing pensionary Contribution in this case may form an inconvenient precedent & give rise to similar applications from others.

DIARY No. 3909

From

M. SHAMA RAO, ESQ., M.A.,
Inspector-General of Education in Mysore.

To

P. G. D'SOUZA, ESQ., B.A., B.L.,
Secretary to the Government of H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore, Education and Agricultural Departments.

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No.2637-8/Edn.40-15-17 of 17th December 1915 sanctioning the deputation for one year of Miss. Arunachalam, Fancy Work mistress, Government Girls' School, Bangalore to Seva Sadan Society, Bangalore since known as Mahila Seva Samaja and order No.4432-3/Edn.40-15-21 of 7th March 1916 extending the period by another year from 24th December 1915, I have the honour to inform you that when the Secretary of the Samaja first made her application on the 9th September 1915 requesting that the period of service of Miss. Arunachalam in the Samaja may be treated as one on deputation, she agreed to pay the necessary pensionary contribution towards her pension. The Comptroller to the Government of Mysore having accordingly demanded payment of the contribution which amounted to Rs.39-12-5 from 24th December 1915 to the end of January 1916, the Secretary now requests that the pensionary contribution to be paid by the Samaja on behalf of Miss. Arunachalam may be waived in consideration of the fact that the Samaja is poor in its resources, it having to depend upon subscriptions and occasional donations for its maintenance.

In these circumstances and in consideration of the fact that the Samaja has been doing good and useful educational work, I recommend that Government may be pleased to dispense with the payment of pensionary contribution by the Samaja on behalf of Miss.Arunachalam referred to under Art.406 of Mysore Service Regulations.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
